

THE COMEDY CHANNEL Comedy Gold

APPLICATION FORM

The Comedy Channel is offering up to $25,000 towards the development of a TV comedy concept, with the winner of the funding announced at the SPAA conference

The Comedy Channel is inviting Australian writers, performers and producers to submit programme ideas for a 13 part half-hour comedy series.

Applicants are invited to submit a proposal of no more than three pages in length. The proposal must be accompanied by video footage which helps to illustrate the proposal.

12 Short-listed producers will be notified on 29 September, and put to an on-line public vote at the Comedy Channel website, www.thecomedychannel.com.au. Finalists will be notified on 28 October

The top 5 finalists as selected by the public will be invited to pitch their projects to a panel including Foxtel's Head of Television Brian Walsh, Head of Entertainment, Graham Burrells and a high profile industry guest on the 13 November at the Sheraton Hotel, Gold Coast.

All 5 finalists will be offered a 3-day discounted conference registration of $770 (normally $1650). Those finalists who will only be attending the SPAA Conference in order to pitch on the day will not be required to register.

The Pitch Session at SPAA Conference must include a performance component to help illustrate the Proposal. The Performance Component may be a live piece or off tape.

Applications close: 5:00 pm Friday 19 September 2008
